

BATAVIA Workshops and Speakers

Please write in the Workshop Number you wish to attend when you register.

Changes can be made at the event.

Sept.
23
2023

WKSH

1

Life After Loss - Marlene Burling, Author

Losing a loved one is not the end of life. Life does go on. But how? In this workshop find out how you can grieve for as long as necessary but, at the same time, how you can live!

2

Using Words to Build a Lifelong Joyful Marriage – Angela Burtis, Blogger

Words are powerful gifts entrusted to a Christian wife which can be players in making or breaking a marriage. Learn how words – both spoken and written - can delight and demonstrate love to our husbands. With words influenced by the power of God's Word, we can use them to build a sturdy, joyful marriage.

3

The Gospel for Preschoolers – Brooke Kashou, Author

A video interview with a first-time author and Minnesota mom of 3 who shares how to share the Gospel with young ones in words and pictures they can understand. Her book also equips parents to become fluent in explaining the plan of salvation.

4

Planning and Hosting a Scripture Reading Event – Brian King, Pastor

There's nothing like letting God's Word speak for itself! Learn how to plan and host an uplifting Women's Ministry Event that centers on simply reading God's Word to each other as entire books, or a reading-in-the-round on a specific theme or genre.

5

Wonderful Words of Life – Judy King

>> For Ministry Wives <<

Experience a cascade of God's sweet words from different passages that address various situations and desires of your heart. Special attention will be given to themes common to women in ministry with their husbands.

6

Love God, Love His Church – Sarah Leary, Youth Leader

>> For Young Ladies <<

Come explore what the Bible teaches about cultivating closer relationships with the Lord and with others in the Body of Christ. What part does reading play in renewing our minds and ministry to others?

7

The Secret Garden: Children's Literature that Cultivates the Soul – Cindy McCarthy

Children's literature is not only a source of delight, but also a powerful tool for shaping the moral character of its readers. Whether a parent, teacher, lover of children's literature, or new to the reading life, this workshop will help you discover the hidden treasures of wisdom and beauty in The Secret Garden of children's books.

8

The Art of Creative Bible Journaling - Emily Wheeler

Do you make notations in your Bible as you read? How do you process the highlights of your personal Bible study time? Whether an artistic "journaler" or just a curious "dabbler", come learn how to enhance your creative note-taking skills for God's glory and your own good. Bring your Bible and colored pencils, pens, or other favorite writing tools.

BONUS

(An optional mini-breakout offered during lunch in addition to the 2 workshops of your choice.)

Reading on the Run– Brian King, Pastor

Do you find yourself running out of time to read? Discover some tips to get the most out of a book when you don't have a lot of time, including methods that help you with speed reading.

MEMPHIS Workshops and Speakers

Please note the Workshop number you wish to attend when you register.

Changes can be made at the event.

Sept.
30
2023

WKSH

- | | |
|----|---|
| 2 | Using Words to Build a Lifelong Joyful Marriage – Angela Burtis, Blogger
Words are powerful gifts entrusted to a Christian wife which can be players in making or breaking a marriage. Learn how words – both spoken and written - can delight and demonstrate love to our husbands. With words influenced by the power of God's Word, we can use them to build a sturdy, joyful marriage. |
| 3 | The Gospel for Preschoolers – Brooke Kashou, Author
A video interview with a first-time author and Minnesota mom of 3 who shares how to share the Gospel with young ones in words and pictures they can understand. Her book also equips parents to become fluent in explaining the plan of salvation. |
| 4 | Planning and Hosting a Scripture Reading Event – Brian King, Pastor
There's nothing like letting God's Word speak for itself! Learn how to plan and host an uplifting Women's Ministry Event that centers on simply reading God's Word to each other as entire books, or a reading-in-the-round on a specific theme or genre. |
| 5 | Wonderful Words of Life – Judy King, >> For Ministry Wives <<
Experience a cascade of God's sweet words from different passages that address various situations and desires of your heart. Special attention will be given to themes common to women in ministry with their husbands. |
| 9 | Secrets of a Well-Read Woman – Aune Johnson, Church Librarian
Do you wonder how some women are able read so many books or to devour thick books? In this workshop we will equip you with the tools and tricks to not just become a book worm but a book dragon. |
| 10 | The Discerning Author – Janelle Leonard, Editor, Author, Librarian
Join us as we think through the traits of an author worth fighting for, and, in the process, gain a deeper understanding of ourselves to create characters worth rooting for. |
| 11 | Monsters in the Cupboard: A Christian Look at Speculative Fiction – Becky Little, Author
The Bible, a narrative about God, is full of stories! Stories help us deal with the issues we face. How should a Christian approach the genre of speculative fiction as either a reader or an author? |
| 12 | Soundtracks: Reclaim and Renew Your Mind – Julie Manwarren, Author
Thoughts can wreak havoc in the life of a Christian if they are not "taken captive". Recurring narratives we have about our past, present and future frame how we live. Let's learn from Scripture how we can surrender those thoughts to God so that He can rewrite our narratives and renew our minds. |
| 13 | Input & Output: The Content We Consume - Hannah Leary Smith >> For Young Ladies <<
Every day we are faced with choices of what content to consume. And whether we realize it or not, the content we consume has a direct effect on the "content" that we will produce in our lives. Join us as we look at the kings of Judah to consider practical ways to implement godly input so that we can produce godly output in our lives. |

RHINEBECK Workshops and Speakers

Please note the Workshop number you wish to attend when you register.

Changes can be made at the event.

Oct. 7
2023

WKSHP #
3	The Gospel for Preschoolers – Brooke Kashou, Author A video interview with a first-time author and Minnesota mom of 3 who shares how to share the Gospel with young ones in words and pictures they can understand. Her book also equips parents to become fluent in explaining the plan of salvation.
4	Planning and Hosting a Scripture Reading Event – Brian King, Pastor There's nothing like letting God's Word speak for itself! Learn how to plan and host an uplifting Women's Ministry Event that centers on simply reading God's Word to each other as entire books, or a reading-in-the-round on a specific theme or genre.
5	Wonderful Words of Life – Judy King >> For Ministry Wives << Experience a cascade of God's sweet words from different passages that address various situations and desires of your heart. Special attention will be given to themes common to women in ministry with their husbands.
14	Write! For Worship, Exhortation and Witness – Dorothy Davis, Author Do you enjoy writing or typing words but then wonder what to do with what you've written? We'll explore how writing can be not only a means of personal worship and growth but also an impactful ministry of encouragement and witness to others.
15	Read Widely, Read Wisely for the Glory of God – Bre Nowakowski, Church Librarian Why should we read? What should we read? What should my kids be reading? Does it matter? Join in a discussion with a "bibliophile" and Christian homeschooling mother of 5.
17	Love Letters from God – Laura Sommons, Blogger What woman wouldn't do anything to receive a special love letter? A treasure for sure! Each of us has received a love letter like no other: God's holy word. It is filled with words of hope and encouragement that speak to the deepest parts of our souls unlike any other. Come and listen to it, then fall in love with its Author again.
18	Good Books About the Greatest Book – Jim Vogel, Author This workshop will focus on why women (men too!) need to know sound Bible doctrine - now more than ever - along with recommendations of some good books (in addition to the Bible) that can strengthen your biblical convictions.
BONUS	(An optional mini-breakout session offered during lunch in addition to the 2 workshops of your choice.) Reading on the Run– Brian King, Pastor Do you find yourself running out of time to read? Discover some tips to get the most out of a book when you don't have a lot of time, including methods that help you with speed reading.