

RENEW '24 WORKSHOPS - Footprints of Faith

How did you hear the Gospel message of salvation?

Who were the people along the way that pointed you to Christ?

Just as their influence marked out the path for you, so we all must be mindful of our place in the generations of faith and be intentional about leaving “footprints of faith” that lead others to salvation and maturity in Christ.

This year’s workshops are designed to help you discover some ways of doing this.

September 14 - Grace Baptist, Batavia, NY

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1. Developing Your Testimony | Tori Reed, Grace Baptist, Batavia, NY | In this workshop we will learn to recognize God's hand at work in your back story, your turning point of faith, and how to share the gospel with grace and hope. |
| 2. Imprints on Our Hearts | Jody Riley, First Baptist, Townville, PA | TESTIMONY: Hear the true story of a young girl at risk (now adult) and those who left an imprint on her heart, shaping the trajectory of her life and ministry forever. |
| 3. The Deconstruction of Christianity | Jami Bartz, Grace Baptist, Batavia, NY | Many of us likely know someone who has walked away from their faith or is in the process of “deconstructing”. What does that even mean and what should we as God’s people do about it? |
| 4. Preparing a Legacy Video | Ellie Ledin, Inheritance of Hope | Share what's most important to you with those who are most important to you...on video. This workshop makes it easy with thought-provoking questions and helpful guidance. |
| 5. Biblical Stewardship of Your Financial Legacy | *Abbey Gwin, Countryside Financial; Calvary Baptist, Akron, NY | What is the best way to honor the command to be good stewards with regard to our finances? This workshop focuses specifically on best practices for "laying up treasures in heaven" through estate planning. |
| 6. Praying Together for Loved Ones Who are Lost | Brian King, Northeast Fellowship | “All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned, every one, to his own way.” (Isaiah 53:6) We will spend time together discussing both HOW to pray and actually praying FOR the people who are dear to us but away from the Lord. |
| 7. Following the Footprints of Paul: Learning How to Show and Tell the Gospel | Jeannie Vogel, Northeast Fellowship | Where would we be if someone (parent, friend, coworker or concerned stranger) had not shared the gospel with us? Let’s learn from Paul’s example how to live out the gospel and also boldly share it in love with those around us. |

* Abbey Gwin is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ with seventeen years of industry experience. She provides holistic financial planning and advice as a fiduciary, and is based out of her practice in Williamsville, NY.
Securities are offered through Peak Brokerage Services, LLC, Member FINRA/SIPC. Advisory Services offered through Blackridge Asset Management, LLC, a Registered Investment Advisor. September 21 - First Baptist, Memphis, NY

|---|---|--|
| 8. Know Your Story: Seeing God’s Hand in Your Family Tree | Julie Manwarren, Keynote Speaker, Hillside Haven Community Church, PA | Discovering your ancestry and seeing God’s hand through generations can expand your testimony, give opportunities for sharing your faith, and give significance and purpose to your life and those who come after you. |
| 9. The Legacy of the Cinnamon Rolls | Jill Locke, First Baptist, Horseheads, NY | TESTIMONY: Hear the story of a troubled teen girl (now adult), the impact of sweet grandparents, and fundamental life lessons learned in the kitchen. Come and consider how you might touch the life of someone who needs to “taste and see that the Lord is good” (Psalm 34:8). |
| 10. The Deconstruction of Christianity | Carol Windnagle, New Life Baptist, Spencer, NY | An alarming number of young adults (and older) are questioning the core tenets of historical Christianity and walking away from their faith in Christ. From this summary of the book by Alisa Childers and Tim Barnett you will learn what Deconstruction is, why it’s destructive, and how we should respond. |
| 11. Redeeming the Lost Years of Early Childhood | Hannah Merkh, Hillside Haven Community, Clarks Summit, PA | Many mothers look at the first years of parenting as lost years—time inundated with the necessary but often monotonous activities of motherhood with little results and even less rest. But are these years truly lost? Or does God have a glorious plan and redemptive purpose even now for mothers and their children? |
| 12. Praying Together for Loved Ones Who are Lost | Brian King, Northeast Fellowship | “All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned, every one, to his own way.” (Isaiah 53:6) We’ll spend time together discussing HOW to pray and actually praying FOR people who are dear to us but away from the Lord. |

| 14. Know Your Story: Seeing God's Hand in Your Family Tree | Julie Manwarren, Keynote Speaker, Hillside Haven, PA | Discovering your ancestry and seeing God's hand through generations can expand your testimony, give opportunities for sharing your faith, and give significance and purpose to your life and those who come after you. |
| 15. Keep it Going: One Generation to the Next | Nancy Jackson, Peoples Regular Baptist, Maybrook, NY | TESTIMONY: When biblical faith is woven throughout a multi-generation family's story, you can be sure it's not by coincidence. Listen to the wife of a Pastor-Dairy Farmer-Assistant Fire Chief whose family commitments shape their legacy to this day. |
| 16. Discipleship: Why and How to Do It | Diane Harris, Grace Bible Church, Wappingers Falls, NY | What is discipleship? Why disciple? What are the benefits to the individuals? To the Church? Experience the joy of relational mentoring in the Body of Christ while passing on the legacy of deeply rooted faith. |
| 17. Train Up a Child: Redeeming the Little Years | Hannah Merkh, Hillside Haven Community, Clarks Summit, PA | Many mothers look at the first years of parenting as lost years—time inundated with the necessary but often monotonous activities of motherhood with little results and even less rest. But are these years truly lost? Or does God have a glorious plan and redemptive purpose even now for mothers and their children? |
