

CAPE MAY, NEW JERSEY MAY 19–21, 2025

Our senior adult bus trip this May is headed to Cape May, a unique destination. Since the Goldens now live an hour north of Cape May, they thought it would be fun to plan a visit, including a stop at their home in Little Egg Harbor, NJ. Craig and Jim Vogel have organized a three-day trip for seniors from Heritage Baptist Church and other churches in Pennsylvania and churches in New York. After last year's successful Washington DC trip, they chose historic Cape May this time.

Cape May, located at New Jersey's southern tip, is a well-known vacation spot, typically crowded and expensive between Memorial Day and Labor Day. By going in May, we'll enjoy lower rates. We've chosen the Adventurer Oceanfront Inn, a lovely motel by the ocean with great rooms and an excellent two-night rate.

While we won't be swimming, we'll enjoy sightseeing, dolphin watching, seafood dining, trolley rides, boardwalk strolls, a Victorian house tour, museum visits, and Christian fellowship, all while having plenty of fun.
